

Export Control Questionnaire

Pursuant to the U.S. Department of Commerce's Export Administration Regulations, Google is subject to export and re-export controls for certain technologies. Positions that permit access to Google's controlled technology may require prior approval from the U.S. Government in the form of an export license. If your position as a [temporary worker/contractor/vendor] requires access to such technology or software, an export compliance review will be undertaken to assess your eligibility for the position in question. For purposes of determining your eligibility or if other restrictions may apply, we are required by law to ask:
